

Units of Sound Books

Stage 1

Reading content for your reference.

Units of Sound Books

The Units of Sound books contain the content of the Reading programme, excluding the Quiz Questions. They provide a useful overview of the programme and can be used for more detailed 1:1 work with a student if needed.

The book page numbers match the page numbers in the online programme.

Content

- ✓ Units of Sound and Word Blocks
- ✓ Check Words
- ✓ Check Sounds
- ✓ Sentences & Passages
- ✓ Reading Check – ‘A’ pages

How to use this book

- For a more detailed check on a specific page covering sounds the student had difficulty with in the Reading Check.
- For 1:1 revision purposes in relation to a student’s needs.
- For an overview of the content to see how the structure builds.

The sun is up and Tom is up. Tom's dad has a van but it has not got tax on it. Tom thinks he will get the tax. If he can get the next bus at ten he can get the tax.

The bus at ten has not gone yet. Tom can get the tax. He will give the tax to his dad and his dad can put it on the van. Then Tom can give his dad a hand to fix the van.

Tom has a dog, Pat. Tom sends his dog off on a run and tells it not to get wet.

Oh no! The hut is a mess and Tom is mad at Pat. Let's give Pat a bath and try to get rid of all this mess in the hut.

Tom will have to try to settle that dog. I think Pat is a bad little dog. It will come to a bad end. I think that I will not have a dog at all.

20A

Tom has gone off to see his pal. I will come with you to see him as well, Ben. You will soon get there if you run. I can give you a hand up the hill if it is too steep. Come on, I can pull you up. There, that's not too bad is it? Let's run to get there soon. Tom will have gone soon and I have to see him. Mum will get mad if I miss him. See, there is Tom with that boy. That little green hut at the end of the path is his to keep things in.

‘That was a good thing to think of, Ben.’

Poor Ben hit his hand. He had a bad bit of luck there.

Come on then, send the ball to me. You can give it a big kick. That was not a very good try was it? Run and get that if you can. I have had it and want to pack it in. Let's give the boy his ball back and sit on that log there.

30A

This was a very funny dream. There was a big fat cat in it, but he was green. He did not like milk. I had a big tin of cat meat for him there as well, but he did not like that. He wanted to eat bits of wood and green grass all the time. He seemed to like thick little bits of dry wood. Then he let some wood drop on my hand and I woke up. There was my dog with her bone. I had gone to sleep at the foot of the tree in the hot sun. That was a funny cat, and a funny dream.

The farmer's horse seems to be lame. It can't pull that big cart and the farm wants it to have a rest. He can send for the truck to take all those bales of hay. Then the horse will not need to try to pull the cart. Open that gate at the end of the lane and let it go in there. The farmer can take it back to the farm yard later.

Did you say that you can fix my bike for me? If you can I will be very pleased. You see I can not get home on foot. I live far away and need my bike to go all that way. There is not even a bus until five and that is a long time.

Yes, I think it was a bit of glass that did it. You can see the hole in the tube there.

In a little time that will be set and I can put it on and ride off home. You have been very good to do this for me. May I ask what your name is?

It is a hot dry day today. The summer has come at last. If I am good to Mum I may get the OK to take some food out with me. I must ask Ben if he can come too.

There is not a cloud in the sky. The sun looks as if it is here for ever. Come on Mum, leave the cleaning up. Let me get a box to put the food in. A bottle of coke to drink and off I go on my bike. All I have to do is call for Ben. I bet he is in bed fast asleep.

It was a crisp and frosty morning. Jack was jumping about and stamping his feet to try to get warm. Ben got some sticks to make a fire. The sticks were damp so the fire went out.

At last Ben had the fire lit and he put a kettle full of water on it. Tea bags, milk and lumps of sugar make a lovely hot drink in a mug.

Get a spade and a fork to dig the garden.
We will need a flower border about 1 metre wide.
Give the soil a good digging over.
Now we can sort out the boxes of little plants.
Mark off where we are going to put them.
Start with a line of plants beside the wall.
In June or July we shall have a lot of flowers in this space.

‘What a good place this is for a camping site.’

‘Yes, we found it last summer. We were looking for a place to do some fishing. The farmer is a very helpful man. He lets us fish in this part of the river if we do not make a mess. There are lots of trout in there.’

‘Get away, that’s just a tall story. You won’t get trout in a silly bit of water like that.’

‘That’s what you think. You come over here and take a look in this bag. What do you think of that then?’

‘Wow!’

Let's have some upside-down things.

When I have two bits of wood I can join them with a saw.

My lawn has nice red grass all over it.

A hawk is a little blue bird and it sings outside my house every morning.

All the birds stop singing at dawn.

Cook the meat in the oven to make it raw.

It was after 10 o'clock and it was very dark. Ben was feeling very sleepy as the car went along. All of a sudden there was a loud bang. The car went from side to side with a lot of bumping. Then at last it came to a stop. Ben's dad put the light on inside. 'Now then Ben, we'll have to see what sort of a mess that has made of our back tyre.' Ben saw that his dad was not at all happy about it. They got out to see what had happened. Ben's dad put the warning cone beside the car.

My sister has a cat called Claude.

With a name like that it sounds as if it must be a very fine cat with good manners.

What! Not a bit of it. That cat is a real pest. Last week I saw it crawling across the lawn. When I had a second look I saw it had a mouse in its jaws. It was awful. It looked at me and then it ran off.

When I next saw it, there it was sitting on the lawn in the sunshine. It was blinking and yawning and washing its paws. It gave me a look as if to say 'What a lovely day it is for a cat to sit in the sun and be good!'
